

The Great Restorative CORPORATIONS Non-Alcoholic TONIC

of the day, made entirely of native medicinal roots and without a drop of alcohol in its composition, is known as

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

There are no secrets about its composition—all its ingredients being printed on the bottle-wrappers.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" not only builds up the strength of the feeble, debilitated, languid, nervous and easily fatigued, whether young or aged, but it enriches and purifies the blood, thus making the improvement lasting.

It corrects and overcomes indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, torpid liver, chronic diarrhea and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Bronchial, throat and laryngeal affections, attended with hoarseness, persistent cough, and all manner of catarrhal affections are cured by the "Golden Medical Discovery."

In Chronic Nasal Catarrh, it is well to cleanse the nasal passages out freely with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" as a constitutional treatment. Old obstinate cases of catarrh yield to this thorough course of treatment.

Through enriching and purifying the blood, the "Discovery" cures scrofulous affections, also blotches, pimples, eruptions, and other ugly affections of the skin. Old, open, running sores, or ulcers, are healed by taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" internally and applying Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve as a local dressing. The Salve can be had of druggists, or will be sent by return mail on receipt of 50 cents in stamps. Address Doctor Pierce as below for it.

In short "Golden Medical Discovery" regulates, purifies and invigorates the whole system and thus cures a very large range of diseases. The reason why it cures such a varied list of diseases is made clear in a little booklet of extracts from the leading medical authorities, compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and which he will be pleased to send post-paid and entirely free to any who send him their names and addresses.

You can't afford to accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." They are the original Little Liver Pills first put up by Dr. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equaled. They are tiny sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps (to cover cost of mailing), for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

HARVARD MAN A SUICIDE.

Instructor in Architecture Is Found Dying from Bullet Wound.

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 4.—Walter Dana Swan, an instructor in architecture at Harvard university, after having shot himself over the heart, died yesterday. The shooting took place in Belmont Wednesday night on the grounds of a private house, and the wounded man was found by two men, who notified the police. Swan was removed to the Waltham hospital, where he died several hours later. A revolver was found in his hand.

No cause for the suicide is known. Swan was appointed assistant in architecture at Harvard in 1897 and instructor in 1901. He was thirty years old and leaves a widow and two children.

They are Liver Pills

Ayer's Pills are liver pills. They act directly on the liver, make more bile secreted. This is why they cure constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick-headache. Ask your doctor if he knows a better laxative pill. We certainly do not. If he does, then use his kind. We have no secret. We publish the formula of all our preparations. J. C. # Quaker RANGES

Mrs. Sarah Heaney's Quaker Range Cost Her
Less Than a Cent a Day For 21 Years.

A. S. Cook Company,
Woonsocket, R. I.

Gentlemen:—I purchased my Quaker range in June, 1885, of Joseph Proulx, this city. Its number is 8-20 and it is in perfect condition. During the twenty-one years I have had it, it has had but two new grates and has been lined three times. It is a first class baker, is very economical on fuel, and has given me perfect satisfaction.

I would not change it for any other make and as far as my work is concerned, it is as good as a new one.

Respectfully,
Mrs. Sarah Heaney.

121 Olo Street.

We want to tell you the history of Mrs. Heaney's range, for it is typical of the good service given by the Quaker Ranges all over New England.

In June 1885, Mrs. Heaney bought a Quaker Range for $48.00 and in twenty-one years of constant use it has only cost her $3.50 for grates and linings. This makes her total cost for twenty-one years, $51.50—an average of only $2.45 a year—less than 5c a week and less than one cent a day.

This is pretty cheap for a first class range, isn't it?—but there's more of the story to follow. At the end of twenty-one years, Mrs. Heaney's range was in such good condition, that it was worth $25.00 and in addition to that she was the winner in one of our recent "Oldest Quaker Range Contests"—receiving in exchange for her old range, a new Quaker worth $75.00.

Therefore after using a Quaker Range for twenty-one years, Mrs. Heaney is now the owner of a brand new Quaker—the finest in the line—and is actually $24.50 to the good. What do you think of that?

To Defeat Reform Plans of Gov. Hughes

WALL ST. SOUNDS ALARM

And the Corporations Rush Lobbyists to Albany—There Will Be War to the End of the Session.

Washington, Jan. 4.—All the forces of corporate and political influence will be brought into action to defeat the radical reforms recommended by Governor Hughes in his message to the New York legislature, and national leaders of both parties here predicted yesterday that Albany will be the fighting field where the battle of the trusts to knock out the proposed reforms will become a national issue and where the present political parties may undergo a realignment.

President Roosevelt is behind Governor Hughes in his fight for the proposed reforms, and though the president will not be openly active in aiding Hughes, he will make it known that he strongly favors the recommendations.

President Roosevelt feels that a victory of the trusts at Albany spells defeat for reforms in other states, and with his inner knowledge of New York state conditions obtained while governor, he will be in position to advise and aid Governor Hughes in his fight.

Washington is being flooded with telegrams from Wall street calling upon certain congressional leaders to use all their influence in Albany to defeat the proposed measures.

The lobby at the capital will doubtless be drafted to march upon Albany when the fight passes the skirmish stage.

Despatches from Albany yesterday indicate that the old-time political leaders in the Senate and Assembly are in a state of anger and preparing to make the fight to save the political future. The railroad and public utilities interests are already in the saddle, booted and spurred for the battle. The abolition of the state board of railroad commissioners would mean a body blow at the railroads, which would be followed by like attacks in other states.

GRANITEVILLE.

After the performance of "The Girl of the Golden West" at the Barre opera house Saturday evening, the train will bring the theatre goes back to Graniteville.

The cribbage entertainment will be held Saturday evening in Miles' hall. All members of the three orders participating in the games are invited to be present.

The regular meeting of St. Sylvester court, W. C. O. F., will be held on Sunday evening, January 6, instead of Monday evening, at the usual hour. Installation of officers will take place. Members are requested to be present. Per order C. R.

At the regular meeting of Robert Emmett court, No. 564, C. O. F., the following officers were installed for the coming year by D. H. C. R., P. J. Lacky of Barre, c. r., A. H. Habigan, v. c. r., Henry Patnode, rec. sec., J. F. Gallagher, fin. sec., J. B. Fitzpatrick, treas., W. H. Miles, trustees, Joseph Houghton, Peter Murphy and Allen McEllan; sr. c., Bernard (Cunisky); jr. c., John Murphy; s. s., Frank Donovan; o. s., Jeremiah Murphy; delegate to state convention, J. B. Fitzpatrick; alternate, L. M. Flynn.

IN RACE FOR LIFE.

If It Fails, Women Fight for Leeds' Millions.

New York, Jan. 4.—William B. Leeds, the millionaire tinplate magnate, whose matrimonial and social affairs have long been the gossip of Lakeview, Palm Beach and other fashionable resorts of the country, is racing for Paris on the steamship La Provence in the hope that French surgeons can save his life.

The steamer will land him today, and immediately he will be taken in charge by specialists, who are waiting to operate on him and prevent a second attack of paralysis. Mr. Leeds suffered a stroke about 10 days ago.

If the French doctors fail to save his life, two women will begin a fight for his millions. One is his first wife, who lives in Richmond, Ind. He paid her $1,000,000 four years ago, when she got a Dakota divorce from him. She has two children, whose interests in his estate she will struggle to protect. His second wife is now with him. They have one child.

The first wife is said to have followed her former husband and her successor to many points and dazed the natives with her gowns and jewels. Mrs. Leeds No. 2 also had gowns and jewels, one pearl necklace costing $350,000. Mr. Leeds was formerly president of the Rock Island railroad.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY DEMURRERS OVERULED

Must Stand Trial on Eight Indictments for Accepting Rebates—The Trial Will Continue.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Judge Landis in the United States district court yesterday overruled the demurrer to eight indictments against the Standard Oil company for accepting rebates from railroad companies.

As to two others the demurrer was sustained on account of technical defects in the indictments.

FRILLS AND FRIPPERIES.

Hint For Bridal Gowns—Brown Costumes—Ribbons "Jumper."

A pretty arrangement for the bridal costume is to have a neat little curls right on top of the head encircled by a wreath of orange blossoms from which the veil is draped.

Two shades of brown in one suit is a fashionable combination. A charming costume of the three piece variety is of brown broadcloth. The full skirt is plaited over the hips and flares out at the feet, where it is trimmed with three rows of graduated velvet ribbon. The bodice is of wood brown chiffon cloth, trimmed with lace of the same shade and breille of the cloth. The full length jacket of the skirt material has velvet revers, a touch of oriental embroidery and an edging of mink fur.

A ribbon jumper makes a dainty addition to a young girl's wardrobe.

BENHILL LONG COAT—$145.

Jumpers may be found ready made in novelty plaid and pompadour ribbons or in black velvet, which is most attractive over a sheer lingerie waist. They are a sort of lattice with half sleeves and have a charming effect on a slight figure. By the way, a jumper of cloth the same material as the bodice on a three piece suit can easily be made with little trouble or expense.

The long coat is the best and most sensible fashion for schoolgirls, and besides, it has the merit of being the height of style this season. The smart coat illustrated is of heavy blue kersey, with a collar of velvet.

DICTATOR IS SLAIN

Major-Gen. von der Launoitz
Prefect of Police

SHOT DOWN AT CAPITAL

Young Man the Assassin—Hated Officer Killed Amid Group of High Officials at a Brilliant Ceremony.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 4.—Major General von der Launoitz, prefect of police of St. Petersburg, was shot and killed by a young man at the Institute of Experimental Medicine yesterday afternoon.

Von der Launoitz, at the invitation of Prince Petr Alexandrovich, the duke of Oldenburg, husband of the Grand Duchess Olga, youngest sister of Emperor Nicholas, was attending the consecration of the institute chapel. During the services there, and while in the midst of a number of high officials, the prefect of police was approached from behind by a young man, who drew a revolver and shot him in the base of the brain. Von der Launoitz fell forward and died in two minutes.

As the assassin turned to flee, one of the officers drew his sabre, cut the man down, and killed him.

The identity of the assassin has not been established.

Vladimir von der Launoitz came of an old family of the German nobility in the Baltic provinces. He served with distinction during the Turkish war of 1877-78, was decorated for bravery, and, in addition to holding the rank of major, general, was one of the equestries of the court. Previous to his appointment as prefect of police, in January, 1906, von der Launoitz was governor of Tambov for three years.

He stood high in the favor of the emperor, who last spring issued a special rescript thanking him for his services in maintaining order in St. Petersburg. Though the prefect acted with severity against the revolutionists, he was not specially execrated personally, like the late General Treppoff and former Interior Minister Durnovo.

This assassination is part of the terrorist plot, the object of which is to bring about a state of general intimidation.

RESIST VALPARAISO CLAIMS.

All the British Fire Insurance Companies Act.

London, Jan. 4.—All the British insurance companies have repudiated their liabilities arising from the earthquake at Valparaiso last year. Speaking on the subject at a meeting of the Royal Insurance company of Liverpool yesterday the chairman said that the terms of the Valparaiso policy differed from those of San Francisco. The companies, he said, had all agreed to resist the Valparaiso claims, and lawsuits had been commenced.

POPE LAUDS IRISH CATHOLICS.

"There Are No Better," He Tells The Earl of Aberdeen.

Rome, Jan. 4.—The pope today received in private audience the Earl of Aberdeen, lord lieutenant of Ireland. During the course of their conversation the pontiff said:

"There are no better Catholics than the Irish Catholics, in Ireland or abroad."

NEW RELIGIOUS LAW IN EFFECT.

President Signs Briand Bill Amending the Separation Act.

Paris, Jan. 4.—The new statute, now known as the Briand law, amending the church and state separation law of 1905, was signed by the president and promulgated yesterday.

M. Cambon to Go to Berlin.

Berlin, Jan. 4.—The German Foreign Office has made an affirmative reply to the inquiry of the French Foreign Office as to whether Jules Cambon, the ambassador of France at Madrid, would be agreeable to Germany as the successor of M. Bihoud at Berlin.

The Times' Daily Short Story.

FULL O' KNAVES

(Original.)

After Tom Hazeltine sold Billy Nutting a doped horse for $100 that returned to skin and bone as soon as he failed to get his money of arsenic Billy was trying to "get it back" on Tom.

You see, we fellows all understood one another, and no one of the gang spared another. After a fellow had been sold he laughed with the rest and bided his time to get even. But Hazeltine stuck Nutting for a larger amount than we fellows liked to see, and we were ready to help him recover it from the man who took it out of him. Billy was very nice about it. He joined in the laugh at his expense, sent the horse to a fertilizing factory and pocketed his loss—that is, temporarily.

We used to meet at each other's rooms after business hours for a small game of poker before dinner. One afternoon when we were at Billy's rooms, each with a pile of chips before us, there was a ring at the bell, and an Italian came in with a parrot for sale.

"Don't want any parrots," said Billy impatiently. "Whose deal?"

"I have a very good parrot," said the Italian. "You like him very much?"

"Don't want him," said Billy. "Get out!"

"Shut up!" shrieked the parrot. "You impudent little villain!" exclaimed Billy.

This changed the interest from the game to the parrot. The Italian was called upon to get him out of his box and make him perform.

"Aute up," croaked the parrot. "Polly," said Hazeltine, "pretty poll! What y' got for a show down?"

"Full o' knaves," croaked the parrot.

There was a laugh, and some one asked the parrot if he had anything else, but the bird only had one answer for all—"Full o' knaves."

"You're dead right," remarked one of the party. "There's more knavery in this gang than in a dozen jailbirds."

"Dead the cards," the parrot suddenly blurted out, rubbing his beak with his claw and following the injunction with a lot of parrot cawings.

"By Jove," exclaimed Hazeltine, "he is a rare bird to have on hand for a poker party! He'd make no end of fun. What you want for him?"

"Tell the gentleman your price, Poll," said the Italian.

"Two cents," said the parrot. "No, no!" interposed the owner. "Try again. Your price—your price."

"Seventy-five dollars," said Billy. "Great Scott!" exclaimed Billy. "Seventy-five dollars for a parrot?"

The Italian shrugged his shoulders. "Put him up at auction," said Billy, "with $75 a minimum."

Frugal King Leopold.

A few years ago King Leopold of the Belgians made a Norwegian tour and in due course drove overland in a chaise to Stavanger, where one of the large hotels was stirred by the news that it was about to be favored by royal patronage. The dinner hour of the other guests was postponed in order that the king might have the huge dining room for his sole use, and other preparations were made for the adequate entertainment of his majesty. The sumptuous repast was served in style, apparently to the king's complete satisfaction. At the end of the repast he beckoned to the maître d'hotel and without a word handed him in settlement a tourist's coupon. Even when on pleasure bent King Leopold has a frugal mind.

Gravestone as a Barometer.

A gravestone in an Essex (England) churchyard shows strange moist spots on the approach of rainy weather. The rector states that it never fails in its forecasts, and he consults it daily.

The Golden Fleece.

It is not generally known that the insignia of the Golden Fleece conferred upon the first Duke of Wellington was that actually worn by Columbus, and as a special mark of Spain's gratitude the insignia was made hereditary, so that the present duke is the proud possessor of the star worn by the discoverer of America.
